A Little Story with a Large Moral One Man who Knew his Own Business.

SLIGHT ODDS.

"No. my dear," said the venerable keeper of a country store to a timid little girl whose head scarcely came up to the level of the counter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red _S 17,8NJ flannel, but we have some first rate New Orloans leans molasses." Sofily hinting that she quite as well, the child went her way in search of the article she wanted.

"Have you BENSON'S CAPCINE PLAS-TERS?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggirt whose name could be given were it de sired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbago, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as soon as it touches the skin."

"Not at present." replied the druggist, genially " but, we have lots of plasters just as good. There is Allcock's, the Capsicum and 808,150 others - won't one of them do as well?"

"My dear sir," retorted the gentleman with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against those articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what want, and for nothing else. I may enlighten you, however, when I say that sometime ago, 192,154 for another disease, of which the Capcine has since cured me, I tried all those you mention with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficient, every one of them, the meanest act of the proprietors of some of them being this: that they make plasters with similar sound ing names to decrive the unwary into believ-ing they are the same thing. Experience 300 taught me the difference. Pil go to the next man in your line. Good day."

Bo on ; our guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE out cleanly in the middle of the plaster. All others are Gentlement — For yearn I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepusa, and could get no relief thaving tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefitted by BROWN'S IRON BUTTERS, I rived a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking Branch's Iron Butterson Butters, severything I sate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN's IRON BUTTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable to-sults. I am practically another person.

remarkable girl was admitted to the institution about two years ago, but to spare the feelings of the family no institution about two years ago, but to spare the feelings of the family no one has been permitted to see her, not has publicity been given to the cross. A few weeks ago the unhappy modiler died. The restriction is now removed. The girl's hame is Eliza. Kerner. She was born in Venango township, her parents being poor but deserving people. When two mouths old, the child had an attack of brain fever. If recovered its physical health, but all mental progress was arrested. Eliza grew and developed a splendid glrl, but had to be treated as a baity. There is no idiocy, but her mind is precisely the same as a bright two monthwold girl. Her mother had to carry law in arms until she became too heavy, and since then she has laid in lacd. She has never been wenned and has never tasted any food but milk taken from the breast or from the bottle. She has a splendid set of leeth, benutiful, clear-cut features, and a luxuriant growth of hair, but knows not the uter or ornament of either.
